

PRESS RELEASE - FOR IMMEDIATE DISTRIBUTION

Les Choralies of Notre-Dame-de-Bon-Secours Chapel

Christmas concerts in Old Montreal District

Montreal, October 24, 2014 – From December 6 to 21, 2014, Montreal's oldest chapel will be filled with the strains of the loveliest Christmas carols. Enjoy the magic of the holiday season with the Notre-Dame-de-Bon-Secours Chapel Christmas concert series, at 1:30 and 3 p.m. every Saturday and Sunday. Given the huge success of past years' offerings, a closing concert with the Da Capo ensemble will be presented on Sunday, December 21 at 8:00 p.m.

This year, we are delighted to welcome six new choirs with a variety of repertoires and sounds. We hope you'll join us and encourage them as they take part in our concert series for the first time!

New this year! Starting November 1, 2014, tickets for the closing concert, with Ensemble Da Capo, will be on sale at $20 (taxes and fees included) on La Vitrine website.

For further information about the Choralies and for the list of participating choirs, you are invited to consult our website at: www.marguerite-bourgeoys.com/choralies.

This is an invitation steeped in a rich tradition to re-discover the enchantment of Christmas.
